MOTHER ANGELICA RIP – The founding inspiration of EWTN (mentioned in last week's Bulletin), she died on Easter Sunday and her funeral took place last week. She had a huge following in the USA and worldwide. Her no-nonsense approach to spirituality and piety inspired countless individuals. She spoke for the many voiceless Catholics whose concerns about faith and worship were often ignored in the past and at best dismissed by hostile members of the American hierarchy. They learnt quickly that she was not someone to be bullied into silence when it's right to speak out for truth. It would be surprising if the first steps in her cause for sainthood were not approved before very long.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS, SUNDAY 17TH APRIL –

The Holy Hour next Friday will include prayers of Vocations. Mass at 10.00 and 11.30 on Sunday will be for that intention, also Vespers & Benediction on Sunday at Woodcote.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR PRACTICE – Wed 13 April at 4.00pm.

WISDOM OF THE SAINTS – My young clerics were full of good qualities –although they were so undisciplined, they were good workers, good hearted and morally sound. I always thought that when the first fires of youth were quenched they would prove invaluable, and I was right. But if I had insisted on perfection I would have achieved nothing. (St John Bosco)
