SAINTS OF THIS WEEK-

Thomas - Usually known as the apostle who doubted but his doubts provided a confirmation of the reality of the resurrection of Jesus. He is believed to have preached the gospel in India where he suffered martyrdom
Elizabeth of Portugal (1271-1336) Spanish wife of King Denis she was renowned in her lifetime for piety: as a widow, became a Franciscan tertiary.
Oxfordshire Martyrs - 2 priests and 2 laymen who suffered for the faith in Oxford on this day in 1589 in the reign of Queen Elizabeth I.
Maria Goretti (1890-1902) A twelve-year-old who resisted a violent attack on her virtue and died as a result of wounds received. Her attacker later repented and was present in St Peter's at her canonization in 1950.

JULY- MONTH OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD

It might seem unlikely, but this devotion is shared by many Christians for whom it symbolises the price of the sacrifice of Jesus for sinners. Some of the most popular evangelical hymns include verses that acknowledge the biblical foundation of the devotion and its timeless impact.
