Heart of Jesus, wounded for our sins, Have mercy on us. (From the Litany of the Sacred Heart)

SAINTS OF THIS WEEK-

Boniface (675-754) Born in Devon he went to Germany as a missionary monk and made many conversions. He founded the diocese of Fulda. He also established strong links between the French Monarchy and the Papacy which would have important consequences for the future of those two institutions. While preaching to the Frisians (part of modern day Holland) he and his companions were attacked and killed. He is sometimes called the Apostle of Germany.

"We are able to see that the Saviour, when once he entered into this world, never so departed as to leave things to be as they were before he came, for he is still with us, not in mere gifts, but the substitution of his Spirit for himself, and that, both in the Church and in the souls of individual Christians."
(Blessed John Henry Cardinal Newman)

JUNE - MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART

The devotion to the Heart of Jesus was a response to an extreme rigorous view that denied the possibility of salvation to all but an exclusive group of people. The reality is that God's mercy is without limit and in Christ we recognise and see it personified, in word and sacrifice.
