St Pio of Pietralcina, pray for us

FEASTS & SAINTS THIS WEEK;
Theodore (d.690)- 8th Archbishop of Canterbury, Christianity expanded and consolidated in England under his outstanding direction and guidance; one of the great leaders of the Church.
Andrew Kim Taegon - Korean priest who was martyred along with many Catholic laypeople during a severe persecution in the 19th century. Today Korea has millions of Catholics.
Matthew (aka Levi); one of the Twelve Apostles and writer of the longest Gospel. He converted when called directly by Jesus from his job as a tax-collector. Ancient sources say he was martyred in either Persia or Ethiopia.
Pio of Pietralcina - (1887-1968) An extraordinarily popular saint of the 20th century, many thousands came just to witness him saying Mass. He carried the wounds of the Passion and preached a profound love of the Mass and the Sacrament of Penance.
