MAIRI McINTYRE RIP

THIS WEEK

REFRESHMENTS

PLEASE PRAY ...

Please pray for the soul of Mairi McIntyre who died last week in Frome where she had lived in retirement after many years in Woodcote associated with the parish and The Oratory School. Christ the King friends of long standing may well remember her catechism classes. We send our sympathy and our prayers to her husband Tom, to Kate and to all their family. Mass will be offered for her this morning.

I am taking the second half of my summer holiday this week. In an emergency please contact Fr John Osman at St Birinus' Dorchester on 01865 340417. The Rectory will be occupied throughout the week. Please do not worry if you see lights on. Mass is celebrated daily at St Birinus at 9.30am (8am on Wednesday) with Rosary before.

Please stay after the 10am Mass if you can and meet your fellow parishioners. Galilee kitchen equipment is available to be borrowed, with dishwasher use!

ANOTHER BUSY WEEK

Thank you to everyone who supported the Induction on Friday night and who brought along so many yummy things for the party. I would like to thank our friend Canon Fitzpatrick in particular. I was also delighted to be able to welcome our Anglican neighbours from Ipsden and Checkendon. Other friends sent their best wishes and prayers. It was lovely celebrating Vespers and Benediction together. Since evening Masses came in in the 1950s, V&B is something which has dropped out of the life of many parishes. This is a great shame. Let us build it up again.

SECOND COLLECTION

This morning the second collection throughout the country is for Missio and home missions. Thank you for your generosity over so many years, not least with the red boxes.
