PARISH FIRST HOLY COMMUNION – Congratulations to the 7 children who are making their First Holy Communion on Sunday:

Lachlan & Erin Alexander      Isabella House
Charlie & Harry Henderson      Sadie Lund
Freddie Hillsdon

Our prayers and good wishes accompany them on their first step along the road to a lifelong friendship with our Blessed Lord in the Sacrament of the Altar.

A QUESTIONNAIRE To ascertain the most up-to-date estimate of resident and supporting Catholics in the many villages which form our parish is now available on our website and also in church. Replies may be sent via the web or in hard copy. Please be sure to respond – even if your family is already well-known in the parish.

SAINTS/FEASTS THIS WEEK- St Ephraem- (306-373) Syrian theologian and ascetic and martyr. St Barnabas- Born in Cyprus, he became a companion and disciple with St Paul. St Antony – (1198- 1231) Originally from Lisbon he came to live in Padua where he was famous as a Franciscan preacher. A huge basilica was built there in his honour. The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus – one of the most popular devotions. Entirely based on Our Lord's love for very human being He has died to save.

SUNG MASS OF CORPUS CHRISTI will be held in the School Chapel followed by a Procession in the grounds of The Oratory School on Thursday at 5.00pm. Parishioners are most welcome to attend.
