Requiescant in pace

From this week's Catholic Herald, part of a report by Melissa Villalobos of the miracle she experienced at the intercession of Blessed John Henry Newman:

Melissa said her recovery was so thorough that she "jogged" down the stairs to look for her children and found them still obediently in their seats, as she had instructed them.

She said: "At this moment I was filled with such gratitude and joy because I knew the baby was OK, I was OK and my children were OK. We were all OK."

"I sat down at the kitchen table with them and as soon as I sat in the chair I said, 'Thank you Cardinal Newman,' and just then the scent of roses filled the air in the kitchen. This was the third time and the final time of the roses. As it filled the air I inhaled their beautiful scent."

Later that day Melissa went to hospital for another ultrasound scan which revealed that the placenta had healed perfectly. Nor – to the astonishment of medics, some of whom later gave evidence to the Church investigation into the healing – was there any trace of the haematoma.

Melissa had been debilitated for more than a month by a dangerous condition, but returned to life as an "active mom" straight after her healing, carrying and playing with her children, pushing them on swings and running with kites.

On December 27 of that year Melissa gave birth to Gemma, who arrived at the very healthy weight of 8lb 8oz.

I Said A Prayer . . .

I said a prayer for you today
and know God must have heard –

I felt the answer in my heart
although he spoke no word!
I didn't ask for wealth or fame
(I knew you wouldn't mind) –
I asked him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind!

I asked that he'd be near you
at the start of each new day
to grant you health and blessings and friends to share your way!

I asked for happiness for you in all things great and small –
but it was for his loving care
I prayed the most of all!

LIZ CLEVELAND RIP

For many years a faithful and active member of our congregation, she died peacefully at home near Belmont Abbey, Hereford on 4 July. Two of our parishioners attended her funeral at Belmont on Friday 12th. May she rest in peace. We extend our deepest sympathy to Christopher, her son at this time of bereavement.

VOLUNTEER DRIVERS - Two ladies, one resident in The Grange and the other in Lyndhurst Court would love to be able to attend Mass whenever possible on-Sundays. If there are any drivers willing to oblige with an occasional lift please let Fr Antony know.
