SAINT OF THE WEEK -
ANSELM -(1033-1109) The idea of an Italian Archbishop of Canterbury would not go down so well today. Yet, way back one thousand years ago it was possible and acceptable. The Church was much more international in its hierarchy then. And of course the King of England also ruled huge territories in France. Anselm was an Abbot in Bec, Normandy before he came to England. His writings remain as original as they are interesting. He did not have an easy time dealing with the two Norman kings, William II and Henry I. Some of the issues dividing throne and altar would take many years to resolve.

WALK WITH ME - booklets of devotional prayers to the Holy Eucharist - free; on table in the church.

PRAYERS ASKED FOR - Frank Jacques, Patricia Bursey, Anne-Marie Hupé, Rosemary Allen, Ray & Margaret Lynch, Lucia Leeson, Mary Hoban, Betty Browne, Jenny Logan, Elizabeth Leaver, Mary Downey.

BACK TO SCHOOL
As the children and youngsters return to the class-room we think of them especially in this term of exams and tests. None of us always found lessons or exams easy. Some were fortunate to have the inspiration and encouragement of an adult. Let us pray that all pupils may be so blessed.
