IICSA UPDATE

The Archbishop has asked for the following message to be made known:

This week the Inquiry has published its report on the Archdiocese of Birmingham. We apologise to all survivors of child sex abuse. We hope that with this inquiry they feel that they have been listened to. Even so, words are not enough. We are committed to continuing to improve our safeguarding procedures and to listen and learn from victims and survivors. Past failings must never happen again. The diocesan response to the report can be found on:

<https://www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk/>.

If you have a safeguarding matter to report please contact the Arch-diocese safeguarding team on 0121 230 6240 or email at: safeguarding@rc-birmingham.org.

THE ARCHITECT'S DRAWINGS

for our Parish Room and facilities are on the board in the porch. Four local builders have now been sent tenders for the work and one will be chosen eventually. Regarding the considerable sum needed for financing of this project, we will receive support from the diocesan agency for grants from various charities that exist to aid such improvements. The parish needs to play its part too but will not have to do it unaided or in isolation.

CORPUS CHRISTI

The day that celebrates the Real Presence of Christ in the Host. This is an important reminder that what we receive so freely and easily should not be treated casually and thoughtlessly. There is always a danger that familiarity – in this case – can cause an attitude of careless or irreverent reception of Holy Communion that is not in keeping with the reality of this gift of Christ to us. He has ordained that we shall never lack easy access to Him but we must never take that precious gift for granted.

PRAYERS REQUESTED FOR –Patricia Bursey, Rosemary Allen, Ray & Margaret Lynch, Conti Browne, Betty Browne, Elizabeth Leaver, Anne-Marie Hupé, Elizabeth Linley, Dora Nash, Kitty Holliday, Mary Hoban, Jane Newbury, and John Warren.
