FAREWELL to John & Eilis Hennessy who, after several decades in the parish will shortly be moving away. We shall all miss them greatly but wish them every blessing and comfort in their new home.

THE ASCENSION

Last Thursday we celebrated the Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord. It recalls the last time that the Disciples saw Jesus in bodily form. From then on it was up to them to carry on what he had begun. How that turned out is the story of the past 2000 years and continues to this day. He is with His followers in a different way. Through the Sacred Scriptures which remind us of the origins of faith as well as its promise for mankind, and the Sacraments through which His presence continues to sanctify and save.
