FIRST HOLY COMMUNION
Lessons will commence on Tuesday January 8th. Thank you to all the parents whose children are taking part in lessons, for the encouragement and support you have given them at home and in church. It is so important that they see your faith in action as well as showing that you care for them in other practical ways.

MASS AT WOODCOTE ON JAN 6TH

This is advance warning that once again our regular Sunday Mass at 11.30am will be disrupted and has to be transferred to the Old Chapel in the Oratory School because of a 10K race fixture on that day which involves placing a barrier across the South Stoke Road. It is about half a mile away so it should not be too much of an inconvenience for us all. It is of course a very beautiful and prayerful chapel.

PARISH DIARIES

Service Publications, who produce them, sent an email apologising for the delay in sending them before the end of the year. Apparently they have had some staff absent with health problems and things are behind schedule. They should be here soon.

Our sincere condolences to Brooke Ward whose wife Kate sadly died while being treated in the RBH on Friday 28th Dec. She had been a parishioner for many decades and will be greatly missed for her sweetness of temperament and outstanding loyalty to the choir which she so much loved.

Sincere condolences also to Eunice Lewis on the unexpected death of her husband Olwen. May the souls of Kate Ward and Olwen Lewis rest in peace and rise one day in glory.
