St Pope John Paul II canonized St Faustina Kowalska, A Polish nun, whose visions of Jesus led to the devotion of The Divine Mercy. He declared the 2nd Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday. Leaflets containing the prayers for the devotion will be found on the table in church.

During Eastertide, the Regina Caeli replaces the Angelus at 9, 12 and 6pm.

THE EIGHTHT DAY OF EASTER

This is a Sunday which has had several names over the Christian centuries. Low Sunday; because it follows the high point of Easter and in the week which followed, the Bishops have one of their two regular annual meetings: Quasimodo Sunday from the first word of the old Latin entry antiphon; Dominica in Albis, from the ancient custom of the newly-baptised wearing their white baptismal robe; Divine Mercy Sunday, more recently from when Pope John Paul II declared it as a special day for that devotion.

ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD

Transferred from the 25th March, because it fell in Holy Week, this major Feast-day will be kept on Monday of this week. Having just celebrated Easter, we are taken back to the virginal conception of Jesus in the womb of His Blessed Mother, Mary.
