THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

Having celebrated the All Souls' Day Requiem Masses last Tuesday and blessed the graves in the village burial ground at Goring and at St Leonard's Churchyard in Woodcote, the rest of the month is dedicated to the faithful departed. If you would like a grave light they are available for a suggested donation of £5. Envelopes for the departed whom you wish to be remembered are available at the back of both churches. The names are placed on the altars during Mass. Please place them in the boxes provided. Mass will be offered for them daily. Other intentions are still available at Mass.

I.T. WORD OF WARNING

I had an urgent email from the computer department at the diocesan office last week. They have been made aware of a scam. Fraudulent emails have been sent to parishioners which seem to come from their parish priest, often containing a phrase such as "parishpastor" in the address. Gmail addresses are particularly susceptible. If you receive anything which purports to come from either me or Fr Jacob but is in a suspicious format, please do not open it. I will always use the diocesan address with my full name which you will find on the top of this newsletter. If you receive one could you possibly let me know by telephone?

THE NEEDS BOX

After some scrubbing and re-painting, Fr Tom's Need Box is on the point of being back in operation. If you have any donations of dried food, cans or clothing please drop them in at the back of the church in Goring. Now that the weather is turning, perhaps good clothing for the drop-in centre would be a thought.

THE VOTIVE LAMPS

... burn during the month of November for Frances Shinkwin, for the Ashton and White families, for the Brown family and for Maeve Colbert.

PLEASE PRAY ...

... among the sick for William, Margaret, Jeanie, Rosemary, Anne-Marie, Elizabeth, Mary, John, Gill, Joan, Lavinia, Lyall, Tony T, Patricia, Kevin, Dora, Tony C, Grazyna, John, Linda, Patsy, Annabelle, John B, Emily, Rose, Ivor, Ilene, Richard, Catherine, Patrick, Anne, Malcolm, Ida, Charlotte, Denis, Henry, Teresa. It is good to hear that Teresa is home from hospital. ... for those who have died recently, among them Anna Thompson. ... for those whose anniversaries fall this week, among them Ethel Mackay. As you may know, the parish records have a number of gaps. If you have any details to add, please let me know.
